On the Google map in the  Search by name or address  field, type in the address. If address does not work, use the name of facility. Once pin icon finds the location, verify the pin is at the correct location. The pin should be located at the center location of all permitted devices. If not, use the mouse and move the pin to a more precise location. The longitude and latitude coordinates will adjust accordingly as you move the pin icon. To help, you can change the map view to a satellite view. The plus (+) and minus (-) buttons help to zoom in and zoom out your view.

For the facilities whose address is not in close proximity of their facility, find the closest street or crossing streets. Use your mouse on the Google map to move locator arrow on map to drop red marker closest to the center of the facilities processes. The facility building can be pending construction or existing.
